

U.S. Certification of Residency Tool

eCerts

Most countries require proof of residency in order to recover overwithheld tax. For U.S. residents, a Certification of U.S. Tax Residency, or IRS Form 6166, is the universally accepted standard. eCerts allows investors to electronically complete an application for a Certification of U.S. Tax Residency, which can be used to file for favorable rates of withholding tax guaranteed under double taxation treaties.

Features

With eCerts users may:

- Create an IRS Form 8802, which is used to apply for a Certification of U.S. Tax Residency (IRS Form 6166)
- Track the status of each application submitted
- Store documents for annual review

Security Features

eCerts is password protected. Each user creates their own secure account.

A password is required to enter the system and create/view all documents.

All information submitted to and stored in eCerts is protected by a VeriSign Certificate with a minimum of 128-Bit Encryption.

Availability

eCerts is available for use by all U.S. resident beneficial owners. The system can be used to create as many or as few Certifications as needed. eCerts is accessible through the GlobeTax website.
